DISARMAMENT PLAN OFFERED BY ACHESON

Paris, Nov. 18—(AP)—U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson introduced the west's disarmament plan today and fervently appealed its acceptance to "open a broad highway along which we can all march together."

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinskiy listened impassively. Acheson urged all countries not to turn aside into the noisome ways of propaganda.

Acheson was asking the U. N. its 60-nation political committee, to adopt a program which would set up a 12-nation disarmament commission to start the ball rolling in the step-by-step supervised arms reduction as proposed by the U. S., France and Britain.

Acheson chose to present the plan to the committee personally. It was his first appearance in person before a U. N. committee to produce and explain a resolution on any subject.

The commission, made up of the members of the U. N. Security Council plus Canada, would lay a groundwork for a world arms reduction conference to which such U. N. nations as Red China could be invited.

The resolution which Acheson introduced for the western Big Four calls for strictly controlled, actual disarmament and a cessation of all weapons, including the atomic.

The permanent members of the Security Council, Britain, Nationalist China, France, Russia and the U. S., would have to agree on such a commission's decisions, and each of the five would have to power in the Council. The commission would draw up for the world conference treaties of "regulation, limitation and balanced reduction of all armed forces and armaments."

The secretary of state made no mention of the Soviet Union, whose acceptance would be necessary to start the plan rolling.

The political committee announced its plans for an afternoon session so that its members could have time to study Acheson's speech before going on with the debate on the west's arm proposal.

DUDLEY DANIELSON AND DAWN TAFT, seniors in Warren High school, were adjudged first and second for their five-minute talks in the Voice of Democracy contest sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, in the large study hall, Friday evening. Third place went to Sally O'Leary and fourth place to Helen Schmiden, both of Sheffield. Young Danielson's talk will be tape recorded by Station WNAE and will be entered in the state contest, the finalist of which will be eligible for national competition. The Jaycees gave the four local participants valuable prizes, Friday night.

The conference was scheduled in conjunction with another to review congressional reapportionment plans for action by the legislature before the Dec. 22 adjournment date.

One of the GOP chieftains, who declined to be quoted by name, said he expected that Fine will sound out for the last time opinion on whether the one-half of one percent income tax can pass the senate.

ISMAILIA IS OCCUPIED BY BRITISH UNITS

Ismailia, Egypt, Nov. 18—(AP)—British forces "occupied" this Suez Canal Zone trouble center today as the casualty list climbed to 14 dead and 81 wounded from two weekend battles between British troops and Egyptian police.

On the British side, four officers were killed—one on Saturday and four soldiers and two civilians wounded. Egyptian authorities announced that six policemen and four civilians were killed, and 25 police wounded in the 24-hour period of sporadic fighting.

The British wounded included Ralph Champion, correspondent of the London Sunday Pictorial. He was slightly hurt.

After yesterday's outbreak British forces began patrolling the city and enforced a curfew last night. Egyptian police withdrew to their barracks.

First reports said the occupation would end at 9 a. m. today, but the British continued in control after that hour. A spokesman said no decision had been reached when this would end.

The British maintain their chief military headquarters for Egypt on the edge of Ismailia but have left policing of the city to the Egyptians.

Ismailia, 40 miles south of the canal's north end at Port Said, was the scene of the first anti-British riots in the canal zone after Egypt denounced her 1936 treaty with Britain on Oct. 15.

Body of County Boy En Route to U. S.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Feiro, 323 East Fifth avenue, have been advised that the body of their son, Pfc. Marshall G. Fellows, is en route home to the United States from Korea, where he was killed in action on August 27, 1951.

The news was contained in a telegram received by the youth's mother from the chief of the Memorial Division, office of the Adjutant General in Washington, D. C., following word of the body's shipment, relayed by the Far Eastern Command.

Upon arrival in this country, the body will be brought to Warren for removal to the Lutz-Ver-Milysa Funeral Home and for memorial services to be held at the Salvation Army. Young Fellows was active in affairs of the Corps before entering the United States Army and had planned to enter Salvation Army school upon his return. Interment will take place in Pine Grove Cemetery at Russell.

ROOMING HOUSE FIRE

Pittsburgh, Nov. 18—(AP)—Residents of an Oakland rooming house fled in their night clothing today as fire swept the structure. Two persons were injured. Firemen said Morall told them the flames broke out when he attempted to light a gas stove. The flames threatened to spread to nearby homes but firemen confined the blaze to the rooming house.

Warren Man Made A Mason on Sight

An unusual event in Masonic circles took place at a special meeting of Joseph Warren Lodge No. 726, F. & A. M., Friday evening, when Charles H. Sontag, 103 Cayuga avenue, field manager for the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, was made a Mason on sight, in the presence of William E. Yeager, Right Worshipful Grand Master of Masons in Pennsylvania.

Among the huge crowd of over 200 that filled the lodge rooms in Masonic Temple, were a number of grand lodge officers who accompanied the Grand Master, including Robert Deyoe, Oil City, and Ivan R. Brumagim, district deputy grand masters; Roy M. Krebs, formerly of Warren, secretary to the grand master, Philadelphia, and the Rev. Beecher M. Rutledge, Warren, grand chaplain.

NEW CASUALTY LIST

Washington, Nov. 18—(AP)—The defense department today added 897 names to the American battle casualty list in Korea. A new list (No. 443) identified 216 killed, 616 wounded, 24 missing in action and 41 injured in combat accidents.

Cindering Crews of Borough And State Have a Busy Time Keeping Highways Navigable

Actual winter, with deep snow, low temperatures, icy highways and all other seasonal appurtenances, arrived in Warren county a few hours in advance of the arrival of hundreds of nimrods who took to the woods this morning with the opening of bear season.

Undaunted by falling snow and the nipping cold, a group of ten members of the electricians' union proceeded to do a full day's work Sunday in hanging the colored lights in advance of the holiday season. In Crescent Park, several members of the Jaycees erected a portion of the huge 400-foot community greeting card which soon will be illuminated by 1,500 bulbs.

The snow started to fall Friday afternoon and has drifted down intermittently ever since. Temperatures have hovered between a low of 20 at night to a couple of degrees above freezing in the daytime, with more snow and additional cold weather promised for tonight.

Highways throughout northwest Pennsylvania have remained in a dangerous condition over the weekend and into today. State Highway crews, cindering one bad curve or stretch of road, would return a few hours later to find their work covered by another fall of snow. Many Warren cars were among the hundreds stalled along the hill north of Waterford Sunday.

For the first time this year.

SNOWFALL HERE IS RECORDED 7 INCHES

Park Superintendent G. H. Reier reported a precipitation of .83 from 7 a. m. Friday until 7 a. m. Saturday, which represented rain and an inch of snow on the ground. The river stage at the Hickory street bridge went to 5.15, but with colder weather had declined to 4.45 at 7 a. m. today. From 7 a. m. Saturday until 7 a. m. Sunday, two and one-half more inches of snow fell, with a melted precipitation of 1.4 inch. Snowfall at 7 a. m. today was seven inches, with the precipitation at .30.

Pennsylvania Railroad snow plows are in operation today. With 18 inches of snow in the Corry area, and 10 to 12 inches in and around Pittsburgh, railroad officials said that plows are being run from Erie to Youngsville and return this morning. The bulk of snow diminishes to the east, making further plowing unnecessary, they said.

By Sunday morning, many hunters had arrived in the county. Many a summer camp, empty since September, and many a hunting camp, desolate since a year ago, showed wisps of smoke rising from chimneys. Other hunters, stayed close to hotels and rooming houses, waiting for the season to open this morning. By 5:30 a. m. today, every available parking space in Times Square was occupied and restaurants were doing a bang-up breakfast business with the rib-sticking "hot cakes and sausages" as the popular order.

Phalanx Benefit Show Is Reported Financial Success

Matinee and evening audiences who saw the Cavalcade of Mystery Saturday agreed that the performance given by the 11 entertainers was one of the most enjoyable presentations of its kind yet seen in Warren.

The show was sponsored by the Phalanx Fraternity of the Warren YMCA and the club president, Allen Anderson, reported today that the event was a financial success with proceeds to be used in their service work.

While all of the acts received appreciative response from the large audience, the two outstanding performances were given by Phil Wein, ventriloquist from Clarion, and Bob Kline who presented beautiful sand paintings.

The rest of the show included highly professional performances by Alfieri the Magician from Clermont, Sherma from Kane, Tom Rea from Oil City, and Bob Hart from Warren, who appeared twice, first with magic and then with his juggling.

An extra act on the evening show was the appearance of Bob Vernon, 12 year old prestidigitator from Bradford, who had appeared on the matinee and was asked by the committee to perform for the night show. Chuck Tranter, Warren magician, who produced the Cavalcade, also served as the magical master of ceremonies.

In the afternoon 300 boys and girls witnessed the matinee showing which included Tom Rea, Bob Vernon, Phil Wein and these local performers: Bob Hart, Stu Kornreich, Harold Ericson, and Bill Wehner.

Well Known Business Man Long Active In Civic Affairs Is New Postmaster

Brace S. Knabenshue, whose appointment as Warren postmaster was recently approved by the United States Senate after having been submitted by the President, is at his desk in the post office building today, having taken over officially on Saturday.

Born in Buckhannon, W. Va., Mr. Knabenshue was educated in the public schools and high school in West Virginia, and graduated from West Virginia University, Morgantown, in 1917. He came to Warren 32 years ago as chemist for the Warren Oil Company, later going into business for himself as Oil Service, Inc., in the marketing of oil. In association with the late James Chapman, he founded Motor Lighthouse Corporation, with activities spread over four states, the central control operation being located in Warren.

Just prior to entering the United States Army in 1943, Mr. Knabenshue served with the Petrol-

Reds Stall Answer to a New Allied Cease-Fire Proposal; Another Recess Is Requested

Munsan, Korea, Monday, Nov. 18—Cease-fire delegates met for an hour and 15 minutes today at Panmunjom—shortly after the Peiping Red radio broadcast approval of a Russian proposal for the 38th Parallel to be the line of demarcation in divided Korea.

The 26th sub-committee session broke up at 12:15 p. m. (12:15 p. m. Sunday EST) after the Reds had requested a recess until Wednesday. They said they wanted the time for further study of a United Nations plan for ending the Korean fighting before Christmas. The Allies agreed to the request, which omits any meeting Tuesday.

The U. N. plan included a truce line which begins slightly south of 38 in the west but extends up to more than 25 miles north of it in the east.

Before the meeting opened at 11 a. m., there was belief the Reds might give at least a provisional "yes."

Red Counterattack In Central Korea Repulsed by Allies

Seoul, Korea, Nov. 18—(AP)—Chinese Reds furiously counterattacked in central Korea today but couldn't budge a dug-in Allied division which had smashed them back three miles in a two-day Mao-straightening offensive.

British forces beat off a 12-hour Communist attack on the western end of the battle line.

In the east, U. N. command troops were knocked off two hills, but recaptured one a few hours later.

Allied jet fighters sweeping over North Korea Monday spotted only eight Communist MIG jets but none of the eight ventured south of the Yalu river, boundary of their Manchurian sanctuary.

A pair of daring American Sabre jet pilots Sunday shot up eight Red MIG-15 jets on the ground at an air base in northwestern Korea—the first time enemy jets have been caught on the ground. Seven other MIGs were reported hit in three air battles.

The Allied division which shoved the Communists off a series of ridges southeast of Kumsong on the central front was hit three times Sunday night and Monday morning by counterattacking Reds.

A Chinese battalion tried for three hours to dent the Allied line but the attacker were thrown back and finally quit the battle shortly before dawn, the Eighth Army said.

Two Children Struck by Automobiles And Escape Without Serious Injuries

With motorists exercising extreme caution over the week end, city police had no motor vehicle accidents to report this morning, despite icy pavements.

Two youngsters were struck Friday, however, although neither was seriously injured.

Friday afternoon, about one o'clock, a truck operated by Nicholas Stanko, 910 Pennsylvania avenue, west, proceeded west on Pennsylvania avenue near Canton street, struck Elizabeth Ann Trawick, 12, 1108 Pennsylvania avenue, east.

The youngster was given emergency treatment at Warren General Hospital for bruises about the hips and both knees, and was discharged.

The driver of the truck told police that the girl ran into the street from between parked cars and that he was unable to stop in time.

Friday evening, about seven o'clock, Kathy Currie, 224 Watson Place, walked into the side of a car operated by Charles Leroy Larsen, of North Warren, while crossing at Second and Liberty in company with her mother and grandmother. The youngster was knocked down but not injured, the police report said.

Other police news over the weekend was purely routine.

An argument between neighbors on the east side relative to the storage of furniture was settled by police when one of the families agreed to move the property in question.

Saturday morning, police tagged 11 cars parked on paved streets between three and six a. m.

A bicycle owned by a Fourth street young lady was found by police on Prospect street and restored to the owner.

Saturday afternoon, officers noticed several small boys playing too close to the river bank on the South Side. They were sent to play somewhere else.

Plane Makes Forced Landing on Auto on Utah Highway and Nobody Is Hurt

Salt Lake City, Nov. 18—(AP)—Joe Wardle has been flying for 25 years. Yesterday he quit. Here's why.

Wardle and Ray McCarthy of Lark, Utah, went aloft for a pleasure cruise. They suddenly found themselves with 2,000 feet of altitude and a dead engine.

They looked about and spotted a highway which "appeared to be near."

The 47-year-old Salt Lake City pilot began to glide toward the road, lining up in preparation for landing.

However, an auto cruised below them, going in the same direction, apparently at the same speed. Ray McCarthy of Riverton, Utah, was at the wheel. He, too, was out for Sunday jaunt. He didn't see the plane. Wardle didn't see the car.

Perry said all of a sudden he felt a shock and glanced into the rear view mirror. There was the belly of Wardle's plane.

Wardle, after pulling up the nose of the plane preparatory to landing, felt the wheels hit, and after waiting for his craft to stop rolling. It continued down the road, nose high at a merry pace. About the time Perry looked into the mirror, Wardle said he glanced out of the cockpit. There was the auto, his plane's fate.

FATAL AUTO CRASHES

Pittsburgh, Nov. 18—(AP)—Injuries suffered in auto crashes killed two western Pennsylvanians. Harry Taylor, 74, of Allegheny, died yesterday as the result of a truck wreck. Nov. 4, John Niedwald, 18, of Erie, died Saturday, ten days after he was hurt in a Erie crash.

Three Additional Intersections In The Borough Will Have Festive Yule Lights

Over the weekend, colored light strings were installed at three street intersections, and one mid-block location which were not trimmed last year. The three new intersection locations are Market at Third avenue, Penna. avenue at Water street, and Penna. avenue at Conewango avenue.

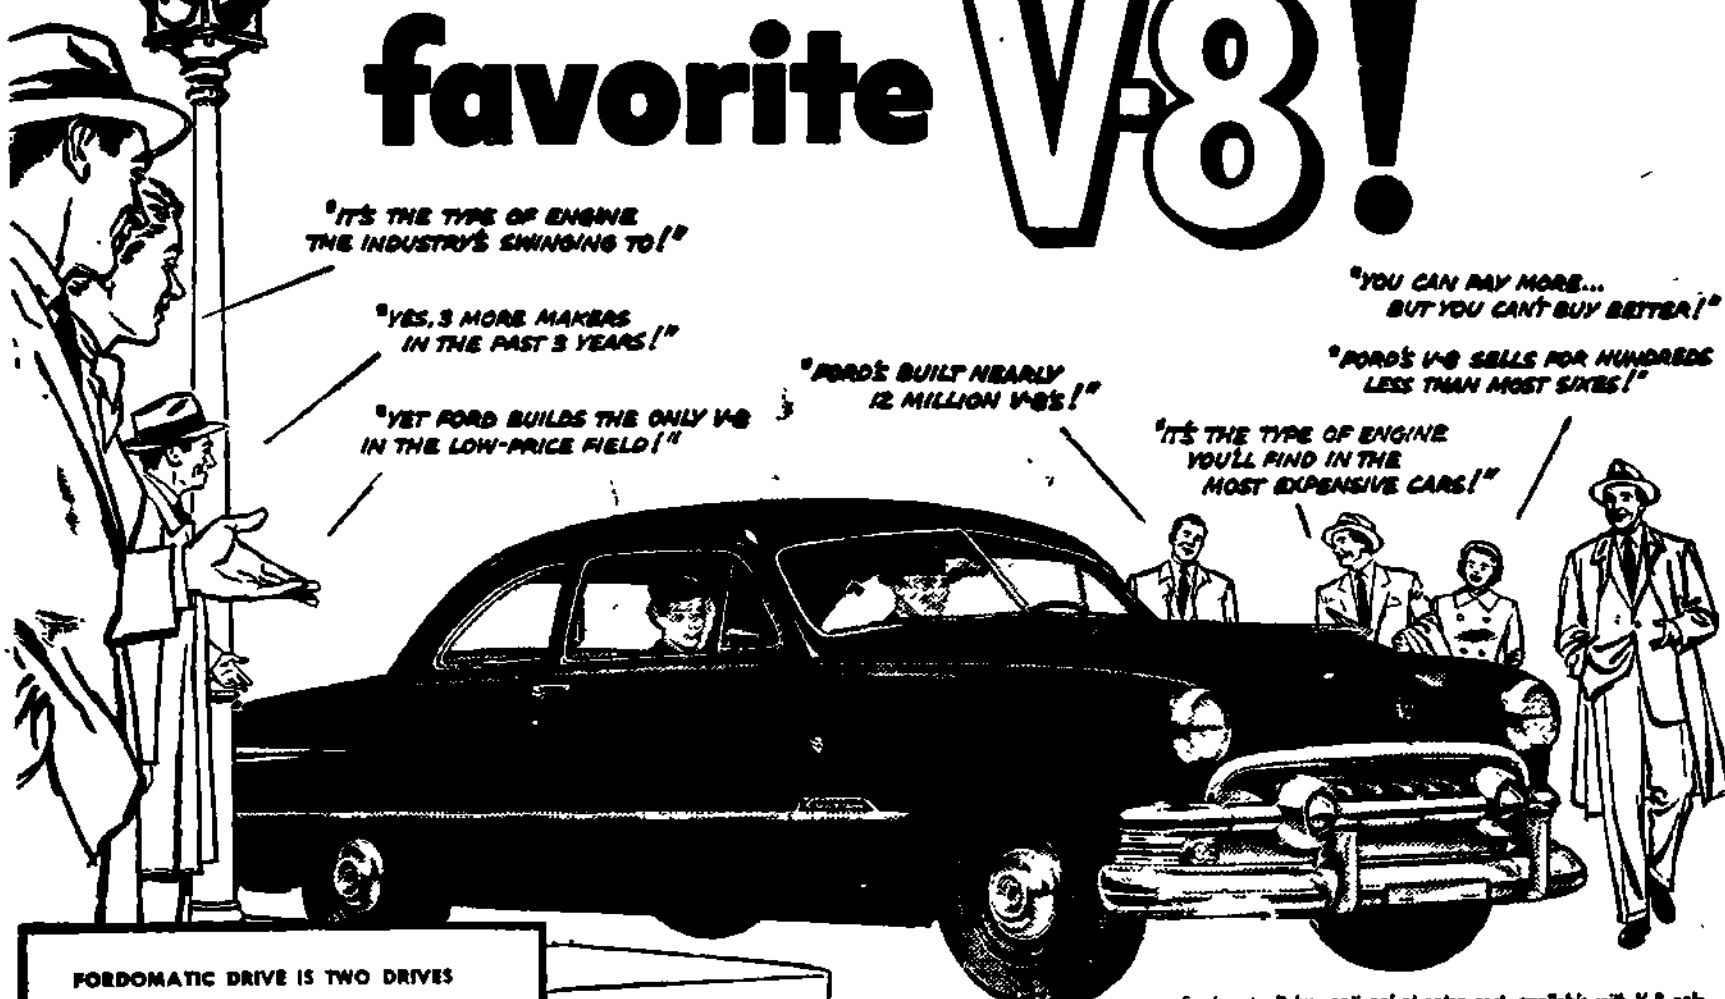

The new mid-block location is Penna. avenue, between Poplar and Hickory. Three more new mid-block locations will be trimmed this year, using the large Neon Stars, and these will be installed tonight or tomorrow night.

Members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Union, Locals 174 and B1124 AFL are making the complete installation of these Christmas street lights, on their own time without pay, and thirteen were on the job over the weekend as follows: Joe G. Duffield, Geo. Spangler, Art Carlson, Paul Carlson, Paul Smith, Roger Thomas, Warren Yaegle, Clayton Kohler, Harry Gnagey,

The Changing Landscapes

RALPH G. ECKERT

Hello folks: Hunting season is now well underway. Several of the Warren County farmers have reported that game is fairly plentiful this year. Many of the farmers have signed up in the cooperative Farm Game Project with the Pennsylvania Game Commission.

The SCS helped Henry Zeysus, young farmer out Columbus way, to complete the conservation survey for his two farms. The steeper and more poorly drained fields are to be seeded down to permanent hay and pasture.

Conservation farm plans were delivered to Donald Gruber, Sugar Grove; Ronald Carlson, Mathews Run Road; and Charles Neel, Warren R. D. These plans are explained when delivered and a full understanding is secured by the farmer.

Shrubs for fall planting, have been picked up at the Allan Lindell farm by Siegfried Anderson and Charles Neel, Warren; Irvine

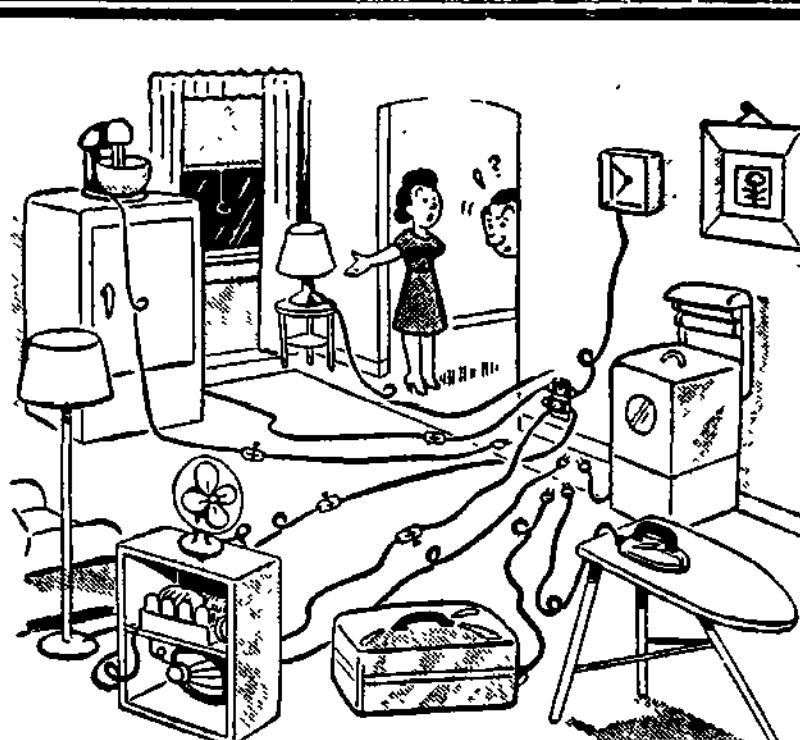

Chandler, Sugar Grove; and Warren Kelly of Columbus. These shrubs will be planted in hedges and wildlife borders according to their farm plans. More shrubs are available for fall or spring planting and cooperators desiring these shrubs should contact the SCS office.

With the help of the SCS, Francis Jaquith, farmer out near Cory, completed his conservation survey. A portion of his farm is located in Columbus township and the remainder in Spring Creek township. Francis plans to clear and improve some of his pasture. Also included in his future plans is the seeding of the meadows to birdsfoot trefoil.

The conservation farm plan has been completed by Andrew Marink, Saybrook farmer. One of his problems has been the cutting into crop fields by the Four Mile Run. He plans to straighten the channel at one place and plant willow to keep it from cutting back again during high water. See you all next week.

Delegation From Warren Present At Shrine Ceremonial

A delegation of over 25 men from Warren including five candidates was in Erie Saturday when Shrine's Imperial Potentate Robert Gardner Wilson, Jr., of Boston, was the honor guest in a colorful Zen Zen ceremonial held at Gannon Auditorium Saturday evening.

The event was one of the largest and most outstanding held in the history of Zen Zen temple. It was featured by the presence of the famous Rameses Shrine Temple Patrol, of Toronto, Ont., Canada. A dinner in honor of the guests was held at five o'clock in the trophy room of Mr. and Mrs. O. Carlyle Brook, potentate of Zen Zen Temple, with all past potentates and officers of the temple in attendance, as well as the uniformed bodies, and their ladies. Included among these guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lutz, of this city. The visiting Canadian patrol from Toronto entertained at the Shrine club Saturday evening.

The outstanding event on the program was the stirring address by Potentate Wilson during the giant ceremonial. He said he has been away from Boston since October 10, and in the last 16 days has visited ten temples, as well as Shrine hospitals in Honolulu, San Francisco and Lexington, Ky.

LOSSES APPEAL

A McKean county gas and oil land operator has lost a Pennsylvania Superior Court battle to have set aside his conviction on fraudulent conversion and embezzlement charges. George Bovald, Jr., of Bradford, fined $30,000 and sentenced to three years in the McKean county prison in connection with $190,000 funds missing from the Carter & Co. gas and petroleum production firm, asked the court for a new trial on grounds the state had no case.

Sheedy of the Pennsylvania Railroad office in Altoona, is the crusade chairman, is the first to report being "over the top" in contributions with a total of $3,413 raised against a quota of $2,763.

Local Man to Manage North East Store

Don R. Currie, 224 Watson Place, popular assistant manager at the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company store in Warren for the past few years, started on a new and important job this morning when he took over the management of the company's large retail outlet at North East.

Currie started with the A. & P. in 1936, when it operated a store in the room west of the Carver Hotel now occupied by the Bevinco Electrical store, in the days before the present "self-serve" system was inaugurated. During ensuing years the company operated a number of stores in the borough, one at the corner of Oak and Pennsylvania avenue east, another in the Salvation Army building, and one in the Leonhart building in rooms now occupied by the Carter & Danielson shoe store and the Watt Office Supply.

Taking over the North East store will be nothing new to the Warren man, who has been working as relief manager through the Buffalo area for the past few summer vacation seasons. The outlet is about the same size as the one in Warren and the new assignment comes in the form of a handsome advancement, for Mr. Currie. He has the best wishes of a host of friends and A. & P. patrons for success in his new assignment.

Currie will be missed in many fields of endeavor in Warren, including Trinity Memorial Episcopal church, where he has been active as an usher and member of the Bishop's Men's group for a number of years, as well as Joseph Warren Lodge No. 726 F. & A. M., the Complanter Rod & Gun Club and the Ex-Servicemen's Bowling league, which he has been heading as president.

Until he finds a house Mr. Currie plans to return to Warren for weekends to be with his wife and four-year old daughter, Kathleen, who will join him at North East as soon as suitable quarters are secured.

HAT TOSSING SEASON

Before long, the Republican presidential ring may be crowded with hats. Gov. Earl Warren of California has now tossed his in, where it rests beside Senator Taft's. In January, Harold Stassen, who has been fingering the brim of his chapeau for some time, will probably let it fly, too.

Then the American public and the political wise men will watch impatiently to see if a certain military head-piece will sail in to join these other choice pieces of haberdashery. General Eisenhower's backers say "yes" to this question, though there's some feeling the crucial gesture may be a sort of backhanded toss.

Most experts are convinced that it's strictly Taft vs. Eisenhower in 1952. They may well be right, but nevertheless it's a healthy thing to have four or five well-known entries in the race. The tradition of American democracy is against limited choices.

Warren has earned his chance at the nation's highest elective post. He is the only three-time governor in California's history. In twice winning re-election, he performed striking feats at the polls. In 1946 he captured both Republican and Democratic nominations at the primaries, reducing the actual election to a formality. In 1950 he bowled over smiling Jimmy Roosevelt by a margin of 1,127,000, the biggest edge ever compiled by any state or senatorial candidate in U. S. annals.

These demonstrations of vote-getting prowess were all the more remarkable for the fact that registered Democrats outnumber registered Republicans in California by 3 to 2. Warren's pulling power with independents is evident.

Despite these signs usually so heart-warming to the professional politician, however, Warren is not popular with the Republican organization the country over. They do not like his constant appeals to non-partisanship, which appear to have played so marked a role in his California victories. Furthermore, his progressive leanings have caused him to be dubbed "New Dealer" and "me-to-er".

No political realist, therefore, is conceding Warren much of a chance in a straight-out fight against Taft and Eisenhower, or Taft alone. The professionals do not want the governor; and his status with the people, as revealed in public opinion polls, is not sufficiently great to exert any strong impact.

Warren himself is no political novice. He must have measured his prospects carefully before announcing. Possibly he anticipates a Taft-Eisenhower convention stalemate which might give him his opportunity. Or he may merely wish to go into the convention with the greatest conceivable personal strength, figuring to apply that weight shrewdly where he thinks it will do the most good.

However it may be, he is a welcome entry. He sounded a constructive sensible note for his party on the occasion of his declaration. At every stage the hearty, open-handed Californian is sure to be a wholesome influence upon the American political scene in the coming year.

Announcement in our Friday edition that the Warren General Hospital Auxiliary is starting a campaign for new members calls to mind the fact that this group of civic-minded women has already made and repaired thousands of garments and other articles for the institution's use; and has provided some much-needed equipment for which funds were not available from any other source. The greatly-increased facilities that will result when the hospital addition has been completed will require even greater labors on the part of the Auxiliary and every new member will be an extra pair of helping hands. Any persons interested in joining the Auxiliary may send their applications and dues to Mrs. F. C. Wooster, treasurer.

Governor John S. Fine has urged all Pennsylvania residents to purchase Christmas Seals to finance research in the fight against tuberculosis. "The Sale of Christmas Seals and Health Bonds is the only means of securing funds for the work of voluntary tuberculosis and health organizations," Fine says in a statement issued over the weekend.

The severe winter spell accompanied by the heaviest snow fall of the season, caught many motorists unprepared and as a result service stations were unusually busy over the weekend.

It will be the first time in the history of the state Jaycees that they have had an executive director and his appointment is in line with plans for extending the Junior Chamber movement to every community in Pennsylvania. It will be a well-deserved compliment to the Warren chapter should the appointment be offered to one of its members.

Turkey's Improved Economy Stems From American Aid

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

ANKARA, Turkey.—(NEA)—Five hundred million dollars worth of U. S. military and economic aid have been poured into Turkey in the last five years. This does not include the estimated $45 million economic aid to be given this year and as yet unannounced amount for military aid. The natural question is, "What have we got for our money?"

Aid to Turkey got well started in 1947, a year before the Marshall Plan was invented. This aid began under the so-called Truman doctrine. Congress approved it in record time — three-fourths for Greece, which had an actual war on its hands, one-fourth for Turkey. The consensus is now that if this aid had not been given, Greece would today be behind the Iron Curtain, and maybe Turkey, too, though the latter would have given a battle.

From the end of World War II to 1948, the Turks had spent half their budget on military defenses. They had a reasonably strong army, but lacked equipment. The original idea of the Truman doctrine was that the Turks would just be given the equipment.

Very early, however, it became apparent this wouldn't do. Turkey had no roads over which heavy military equipment could be moved. So U. S. Bureau of Public Roads had to be called in to plan a highway system. This has developed into a nine-year program, with five years still to go.

At its end, Turkey will have a 15,000-mile system of all-weather military roads which will greatly aid its defense. The Marshall Plan has kicked another $15 million into this enterprise, paying the salaries of some 50 highway engineers and mechanics who are training the Turks to build and maintain their own highways.

The road system is of more than military benefit. It has opened up new areas to farming and enabled Turkey to move to market, for export, wheat that could not even be grown before.

Just giving the Turks the equipment was soon found to be wrong for another reason. They didn't know how to operate it and, much less, how to maintain and repair it. So large-scale training had to be started. It now includes some 15 schools, teaching over 200 subjects.

On top of this, last spring, on a Turkish general staff suggestion, a Turkish-American inspection-training corps was formed. It now has some 400 officers in the field, inspecting Turkish armed forces' efficiency. This corps, plus nearly 1000 instructors, make the U. S. training program in Turkey its largest foreign military mission.

In addition to equipment and training, the United States is helping Turkey enlarge its air bases and build a new naval base at Iskenderon, at the northeast "corner" of the Mediterranean.

Practically all purely civilian Turkish aid programs under the Marshall Plan have now been ended, but those projects still under construction will be completed.

ECA's main contribution to Turkey has been building up its agriculture. The aim has been to make Turkey the bread basket for this part of the world. And this year, Turkey's earnings from sales abroad of farm products will be greater than the Marshall Plan aid.

Industrially, Turkey has exported 50,000 tons of pig iron to the United States this year, although Turkey's own steel production from two small converters is only 150,000 tons a year. Copper and chrome exports are also being stepped up.

In spite of all the progress that Turkey has made with Marshall Plan assistance, present estimates are that Turkey will not be self-supporting by next year. The budget deficit is estimated at over $175 million. The principal reason is that Turkey is spending over half of its budget of $800 million a year on military defense. And with this outlay, it can't break even.

Plants in Picture Window Call for Special Care

A Winter Window Garden Makes Spring Come Faster, and Teaches Many Lessons.

Popularity of picture windows, have caused some readjustment in the rules for winter window gardens.

A north window of normal proportions has not been considered a good location for flowering plants because of insufficient light. But a picture window facing north which is not shaded from reflected light of the northern sky, is a preferred location for most of the plants which are easy to grow in the house.

The light which such a window admits is adequate and it has the advantage of an even and cool temperature. In a room which varies between 70 and 80 degrees in daylight hours, the temperature close to a north window will often be 10 to 20 degrees lower.

A picture window facing south, on the other hand, which gets the full impact of the winter sun will usually be subject to extreme variations of temperature. If you place a thermometer between a south window, and storm sash, on a sunny day you may get readings up to 100 degrees, when the outside temperature is below freezing.

East and west picture windows are likely to be more favorable to plants than one facing south, but the northern exposure is even more easily managed, and favors a wider variety of plants. Cyclamens bloom freely in this location and Paper White narcissi do much better than in a sunnier window, where the temperature range is much greater. Begonias, which may be injured by too much sun do well. It is an ideal spot for African violets, Amaryllis, calla lilies, and all the hardy bulbs will thrive, and of course the foliage plants and florists' green plants.

An arrangement by which a shade or curtain can be lowered between the plants and the glass on sub-zero nights will protect from injurious drafts, provided the window is of the double pane type, or has a tightly fitted storm sash.

Automatic watering for indoor plants will save lots of trouble, and may save your plants. Trays or saucers in which two inches of coarse sand can be placed should be provided. Stand the pots on this sand, and keep water in the sand just below the bottom of the pot. This water will be drawn into the pot as needed to keep the soil moist, without danger of water-logging. Evaporation from the trays will also help humidify the air, which is usually too dry. Other methods of humidifying which may be available will be beneficial.

Those who live with picture windows soon learn that the light, or glare they admit, is not always pleasant. It is easily softened by a gauzy curtain, and in the case of plants excessive variations in temperature may be lessened by shading with such a curtain, or a screen of similar material.

Letters to the Editor

Oct. 30, 1951

A letter to Warren,

One of the facts that amazes me in the Army is that thought does not stop; it becomes more acute, particularly if a citizen happens to believe very deeply in the growth of freedom, the hope of understanding, and the love of a country as beautiful as the spot on earth that Warren has. The spot of earth is God's and it is yours to work with, to make the best from it, from every aspect of it, whether it is the purchase of a loaf of bread by a housewife or to the earning of that bread through free enterprise.

It is of that tonight I would like to talk to you, and perhaps, like you, I have not thought of it often enough. The Army has made me realize the full value of such a way of life, and many of the men of Warren realize it for they went through the active World War Two as this Army faces the Waiting War of Europe.

Europe is the proscenium arch of our play upon the stage and Russia seems to be the villain. In the past months I have increasingly heard, and read, of Russia and its chess player technique; that the Russian system is "a player" of chess. We have been referred to as Poker Players. I would like to know what the play is, for I am of the production. I want to know for we are paying taxes, ever increasing ones, to keep on as members in the cast!

I know something of chess. It is a game of skill, not of chance, and I know the men in the play of chess do not move "by accident" for chess affords no mistakes in its long range plan. The Russians play such a game. On the other hand we admit to playing poker politically. In this world production we are engaged in we cannot afford to take the chance of drawing a royal flush in the straight game of poker we are apparently engaged in.

What has this to do with free enterprise and the place I prefer to live? Just this; that if we expect to retain that loaf of bread, and the earning of it by our own benefit, we cannot afford the game of poker. The chance on losing the loaf of bread altogether is too great.

Part of Russia's long range plan is to bleed America to a death of free enterprise, and a requiem for Democracy. Each of us has a right to investigate our economy, to write our Congressman concerning it, to find for ourselves and to aid in suggestion by our future votes.

It has been said that there is more than one way of skinning a cat. Why not become chess players and give up the foolhardy role of poker playing we have assumed? Why not a long range plan that develops the individual citizen and not a socialistic drift? Europe is your front yard, too.

TO BRING THE STORY HOME TO YOU—Near the front lines in Korea, actor Danny Kaye, center, makes a recording describing the scene as a medic, right, gives blood plasma to a wounded G.I. A chaplain at left comforts the wounded man. Kaye's recording will be used to spur people on the home front into donating more blood for the armed forces. (Exclusive NEA-Acme Telephoto by Staff Photographer Bill Purdom.)

It can't be won today by being pennywise and pound foolish. It can be won by mutual economy. Europeans need friendship as well as dollars to win the peace, and that's a letter in itself.

I keep on thinking in the Army.

Yours truly,

Pvt. William M. Meade

it began, if it began, with misery and hunger spreading, the Communists would get new strength and supporters.

Where they could—and I wonder if anyone doubts this—they'd take over by revolution. If they couldn't do it that directly, they'd try to take over bloodlessly through election to enough key offices.

And when they struck, if they won, Russia would have won. It would be a victory for Russia just as good as conquest by arms but far less costly in men and blood.

I don't think anyone any longer has any illusion that Russia is not determined this shall be a Communist world or that the Russian leaders may have once thought that but have changed their minds.

The final victory, a Communist world, is the Russian goal. If blocked from military conquest, by a fully-armed non-Communist world, the Russians can afford to wait if they can win from the inside by the work of the local Communists, working for Moscow.

The snake-killing secretary bird often will soar high into the air, carrying its prey with it, then drop it on the hard ground, ending the battle.

It's so easy to relieve coughs and stuffiness of colds in a hurry this home-proved way... with 2 spoonfuls of Vicks VapoRub in a vaporizer or in a bowl of boiling water as directed in package.

Just breathe in the steam! Every single breath carries VapoRub's soothing medications deep into throat and large bronchial tubes. It medicates irritated membranes, helps restore normal breathing. For coughs or upper bronchial congestion there's nothing like using Vicks VapoRub in steam.

For continued relief always rub it on throat, chest and back.

THE WORLD TODAY

THE HIDDEN BALL TRICK

Washington—(AP)—The No. 1 gimmick—the hidden ball trick, the Trojan Horse—in any attempt to get world peace is the local Communist party everywhere.

Suppose the U. S., Russia and the rest of the world agree on a peace plan, agree to stop arming, and in fact agree to cut down their armaments so much they'll no longer be a military menace to one another.

That would pretty much seem to eliminate the danger of an outbreak of war. It would still be an illusion, so far as the safety of the non-Communist countries is concerned.

They could still be taken into the Russian camp without a shot fired across their frontier, for so long as a local Communist party exists inside each of them each is in danger of being trapped.

Those local Communist parties inside the non-Communist countries wouldn't cut their ties with Russia. Wherever and whenever she could, Russia would direct them and support them under cover as she did in the past.

In a climate of peace the local Communists might be treated with far more tolerance than now by the non-Communist countries. This would be a natural reaction.

With Russia no longer a military menace, it would be easy for the non-Communist world to look upon its local Communists as helpless and ineffective.

But so long as those local Communist parties existed, even though they had no planes or guns, they'd remain subsidized shock troops for Russia, trained to strike from within when they could.

They'd run for office, where that was permitted them, in order to get into and control key positions of government, useful positions to have if the time came to strike.

True, they might lack any popular support for a while, at

Legion Auxiliary At Ludlow Having Nursing Courses

Ludlow, Nov. 19—Forty members attended the regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary, when Mrs. Walter Swanson, Civil Defense chairman, reported three classes in home nursing have been started under the Auxiliary's auspices and instructed by the Red Cross.

The afternoon class will meet on Mondays and Fridays, 1:00 to 2:00, and will be taught by Mrs. Eugene Johnson of Kane; the evening class, each Monday and Tuesday from 7:30 until 9:30, with Mrs. Laura Johnson of Kane instructing; the third class to be announced.

Let Your 'Wonderful Husband' Be Himself—Faults and All

It is surprising how many letters that come to this column from wives begin: "I have a wonderful husband but ..."

The sentence is usually completed with several criticisms. Sometimes only one. But in every case, it is the criticism or several of them that the wife is most concerned with.

So I am going to answer all of these letters at once. For the same advice applies to all.

Concentrate on the first part of the sentence—and forget the rest. "I have a wonderful husband." That is what is really important. What follows the "but" isn't worth fretting over, certainly not worth making you unhappy.

There's no such thing as a perfect husband. So if you can say "I have a wonderful husband" or "I have a good husband" or even "I love my husband very much" you're lucky. You have the things that really matter.

Forget those minor flaws. It's a human being you're married to—not a model husband.

NAGGING WILL ONLY BRING GRIEF

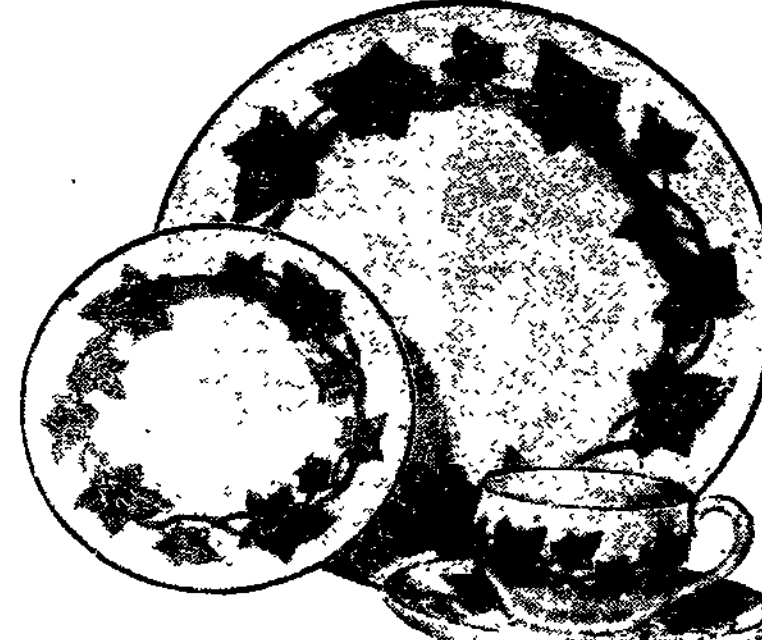

ALL you'll get out of fretting over his minor faults or trying to nag him into your idea of perfection is a lot of grief for yourself. Let him alone, lady. Let him be himself—minor faults and all. And when you're tempted to fret and worry because he isn't perfect, repeat the first part of that sentence to yourself—putting a period after husband. "I have a wonderful husband."

That's all any woman ought to ask. And the woman who asks for more—for perfection, that is—is only asking for trouble. If you've got a wonderful husband you shouldn't be criticizing him to anyone.

MRS. ROBERT LEWIS MORAN

In a simple ceremony performed at 11:00 a. m. Saturday in the rectory of Sacred Heart church in Lakewood, N. Y., Father George Freeman united in marriage Sara Patricia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Plumer M. Printz, 62 West Terrace, Lakewood, and Robert Lewis Moran, son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Moran, Waldameer Way, Lakewood. The vows were taken against a background of palms, white mums and tapers.

The bride, granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Printz, of Warren, was given in marriage by her father and attended by her cousin, Meredith Walker, of Warren. Completing the bridal party, James F. Moran, Jr., of Lakewood, served as his brother's best man.

Wearing ivory satin and a fingertip veil of imported Brussels lace, the bride carried a white orchid, with stephanotis and fleur d'amour. Her gown was styled with yoke and princess panel of lace which matched her veil, with the wide pictorial skirt lengthening into a train. Tiny satin buttons trimmed the long, tapering sleeves and the simple, round neckline was complemented with the bridegroom's gift of pearls. An orange blossom tiara held her veil.

Miss Walker wore a gown of moss green, faille, with inserts of net, and matching cap. Her bouquet was a cascade arrangement of bronze gloriose lilies and shaggy pom poms in the same shade.

Mrs. Printz was gowned in rose quartz slipper satin, with matching satin hat trimmed in rose feathers, and a brown spray orchid with rose tips. Mrs. Moran, in crown brocade satin and matching hat with feather trim, had a cream spray shoulder orchid.

The reception for 200 guests followed at the Moonbrook Country Club, with guests from Warren, Oil City, Franklin, Sharon and Cleveland, O. White snow mums, combined with cymbodium ferns and sheffellars, decorated the bride's table, the fireplace was banked with matching mums and garlands of green were used throughout the clubhouse. Aides were Cynthia Moran, Mrs. C. Graham Hines, Joan Lavery, Mrs. John Newmaker, Patricia Fletcher, Mrs. Edward C. Walker, with Corinne Culbertson in charge of the guest book.

FIREMEN TO OPERATE THE HIGHHOUSE RINK

Officers of the Pleasant Township Volunteer Fire Department launched a new project over the weekend when they started putting in shape for operation when weather permits the, old Highhouse skating rink, along the Pleasant township highway opposite the airport.

It was announced by one of the officers today that the present owners John R. Berry, who purchased the property some time ago, and Floyd Wilbur, who also owns land connected with the pond, has made the place available to firemen, and Sunday eight members of the department turned out in the blustery weather to help repair lights, refurbish the skate house and prepare the pond for freezing.

Plan Thank Offering For St. Barnabas

Trinity Memorial parish announces that it will again make a special Thanksgiving offering for the work of St. Barnabas' Brotherhood at North East. The work in this home for men and boys with incurable diseases has been carried on with the aid of churches of all denominations within the area of the Erie Diocese and within the past two years members of many faiths have been patients.

Only requirement for admission is that the patient must have an incurable disease and be without money or friends who can take care of him. The home is filled to capacity and is dependent entirely upon freewill offerings for continuation of its marvelous work.

At Thanksgiving time, through the use of Brown Bags sent out to Episcopal churches and missions, contributions of staple groceries are made for replenishment of the larder.

Cinder Crews of Boro And State Have Busy Time

Borough streets and county highways were remarkably free of accidents, although many cars slid into ditches and had to be hauled out. A hazardous condition existed along the Warren-Kinzua road, where groups of hunters from away, including two delegations from Erie, had rented camps and found these did not provide adequate parking facilities for more than one car.

Opening at 7 a. m. today, the legal tracking and shooting of bears will end at 5 p. m. Saturday. The Times-Mirror offices were waiting, with photographer on hand, for reports of the first kill.

Bears over a year old are legal game with cubs protected. An individual hunter may take one bear during the season while a party of three or more is permitted two bears.

The State Game Commission reports that black bears are widely distributed throughout northern Pennsylvania, usually in places where there is plenty of food and cover.

The commission cautioned hunters to make certain a bear is of legal age before shooting. Beyond the question of legality, the commission said, another searching look is needed to "distinguish a bear from a hunter who is foolish enough not to wear plenty of red or some other distinguishing color."

A new law, permitting small game hunting with semi-automatic guns does not apply to bear hunting. Pump shotguns firing rifled slugs or balls may be used, however.

Judge Allison D. Wade said this morning that under the new rules for jury service, the response on the part of jurors has been most gratifying to the court and the county bar association.

He added that proper attitude toward jury service on the part of those chosen aids greatly in the dispatch of court business and keeping the dockets cleaned up.

Saturday evening, a lady who lives on West Fifth avenue, locked herself out of her home and asked police for aid. They opened the door for her.

Last evening, officers on patrol found a bell ringing in a local store. The owner was called and fixed the bell.

Large Squad of Jaycee Members Turn Out to Erect Christmas Greeting Signs

A "Warren Wishes You Merry Christmas Happy New Year" sign was erected along the river bank of Crescent Park Sunday afternoon as a result of the fine turnout of Jaycees to assist in the project.

With the Warren Transfer truck donated and Orrie Beebe's coffee a crew of 17 men did the work. They were Ross Ruhman, Ken Carlson, Harry Schmidt, Fred Thompson, Ken Porter, Bernard Bloom, Gerry Vealing, Abe Schwartz, John Newmaker, Royce Black, Jim Erickson, Milt Dahler, Jack Barr, Logan Bolan, and Dr. William Walters.

The men divided into several work groups and completed the burdensome task of putting up the 350 foot sign in four hours. The letters in the greeting are approximately nine feet high with more than 1500 bulbs placed every 15 inches. "Warren Wishes You" are the additional words added to last year's sign.

It has been requested that parents advise their children to keep away from the sign due to the high voltage and the possibility of electrocution.

LET'S STOP ARGUING ABOUT—

HUMAN RIGHTS VS. PROPERTY RIGHTS

— WHEN THERE IS NO LAW OF GOD, NATURE OR MAN THAT GIVES PROPERTY ITSELF ANY RIGHTS.

PEOPLE, NOT PROPERTY, HAVE RIGHTS, SO—

ALL RIGHTS ARE HUMAN RIGHTS!

AND THE HUMAN RIGHT TO PRIVATE PROPERTY IS BASED ON THE LAWS OF GOD, EXPRESSED IN THE TEN COMMANDMENTS —

THE MAIN PURPOSE OF OUR EARLY AMERICAN GOVERNMENT WAS TO PROTECT HUMAN RIGHTS...INCLUDING THE RIGHT TO PRIVATE PROPERTY.

BUT—GOVERNMENT ITSELF CAN VIOLATE THE HUMAN RIGHT WHICH IT WAS ORIGINALLY DESIGNED TO PROTECT.

REMEMBER EVERY GOVERNMENT IN HISTORY HAS, SOONER OR LATER, VIOLATED THIS HUMAN RIGHT WHEN IT ATTEMPTED TO PROVIDE FOR PEOPLE BY TAKING MORE OF THEIR PRIVATE PROPERTY

AND WITHOUT EXCEPTION THE RESULT HAS ALWAYS BEEN —
LOSS OF INDIVIDUAL FREEDOM LOWER SCALE OF LIVING

Thou shalt not covet...anything that is thy neighbor's.
Thou shalt not steal.

THE LAWS OF GOD CAN BE BROKEN, VIOLATED OR IGNORED BUT — NEVER DESTROYED!

ABRAHAM LINCOLN SAID —

PROPERTY is the fruit of labor; property is desirable; is a positive good in the world. That some should be rich shows that others may become rich, and hence is just encouragement to industry and enterprise. . . . Let not him who is houseless pull down the house of another, but let him labor diligently to build one for himself, thus by example assuring that his own shall be safe from violence. . . . I take it that it is best for all to leave each man free to acquire property as fast as he can. Some will get wealthy. I don't believe in a law to prevent a man from getting rich; it would do more harm than good.

Save-the-Children Bundle Day in Boro Schools on Tuesday

Clothing given in the Save-the-Children "Bundle Day" in Warren borough schools tomorrow will help to clothe approximately 185,000 children in America and overseas, according to information Superintendent Carl E. Whipple has received from the Save the Children Federation, agency for distribution of the garments.

The local drive is part of a nationwide children's clothing crusade conducted in public schools throughout America under the auspices of the National Advisory Committee of School Superintendents.

About a third of the children who will be aided live in seven war-depleted countries of Europe and in Korea. The remainder live in disadvantaged rural areas of America and on the Navajo Indian Reservation and belong to such low income groups that they are to a considerable extent, dependent on this clothing in order to go to school.

Most important is warm clothing, heavy underwear, wool skirts, suits, sweaters and shirts, with children's shoes next in importance, and babies' clothing constantly in demand.

Stressed by the Federation is the importance of having all gifts clean and in as good repair as possible, "because these gifts will be symbols of new hope to many needy children."

The earliest known member of the giraffe family had a shorter neck and was less than six feet high at the shoulder.

MENU SUGGESTIONS

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

FRANKFURTERS can help in the battle of the meat budget. And there is a good reason for dressing them up a bit. It makes them more welcome at mealtime.

The cookery experts of the American Meat Institute come up with these tricks:

Saucy Franks
Serve with a hot sauce, such as cheese, barbecue, mustard, horseradish or tomato.

Frankfurter Wrap-Arounds (1)
Trim crusts from slices of bread and spread with butter or fortified margarine. Dip franks in barbecue sauce and place each diagonally on a slice of bread, then roll and fasten with a toothpick. Toast under the broiler.

Frankfurter Wrap-Arounds (2)
Slit franks down the center and fill with a little mustard, horseradish and a sliver of cheese. Wrap with a slice of bacon and fasten with toothpicks. Place the franks slit side down under the broiler. Then turn and broil the second side.

Tuxedo Franks
Mix some grated American cheese and a little grated onion with mashed potatoes. Slit franks and fill with this mixture. Place in a baking pan and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 15 minutes or broil until potatoes are lightly browned.

Another weapon in the battle of the meat budget is the careful planning of budget menus in advance. The following are samples of what you can plan:

Dinner: Orange glazed meat loaf, mashed potatoes, snap beans, marinated cucumbers, bread, butter or fortified margarine, quick peach shortcake, coffee, milk.

Dinner: Tuna stuffed peppers, Harvard beets, mashed summer squash, bread, butter or fortified margarine, fruit float, coffee, milk.

Dinner: Veal and kidney stew, parsley potatoes, carrots, cole slaw, bread, butter or fortified margarine, grapes and pears, cookies, coffee, milk.

Dinner: Roast breast of veal with rice stuffing, celery sticks, parsley carrots, bread, butter or fortified margarine, fresh peach cake, coffee, milk.

TOMORROW'S MENU
BREAKFAST: Orange juice, oatmeal, enriched toast, butter or fortified margarine, coffee, milk.
LUNCHEON: Toasted peanut butter and chopped bacon sandwiches, sliced tomatoes, applesauce, cookies, tea, milk.
DINNER: Tuxedo franks, casserole of kidney beans with tomatoes, buttered broccoli, enriched bread, butter or fortified margarine, cucumber and carrot sticks, grapes and plums, coffee, milk.

Party of Turkeys Recast by O.P.S. Holiday Season

Party of turkeys for the Thanksgiving and Christmas season at prices that still make them of the best buys in meats, will be available to housewives, according to Joseph J. McBryan, regional director.

Turkey production is well above of a year ago, he said, with more of the smaller-sized birds coming to market. Prices will range from 3 to 5 cents a pound for those of a year ago, due to heavy buying for the turkey and women in the armed services, McBryan explained.

Since early in September, the turkey services have bought about 100,000 of eviscerated turkeys each. Even so, present market prices range from 59 to 65 cents the best grade of small hens to 62 cents a pound for roasters.

Meanwhile, the O.P.S. director saw lower prices for beef, lamb and veal. He said that reports indicate a steady drop in the price of cattle in the Chicago market. The O.P.S. launched its drive against slaughterers late in September. These declines not only kept a sharp halt in rising prices but reflect the effects of O.P.S. drive against violators.

Another factor, McBryan said, is increased flow of cattle to the West, again in line with O.P.S. regulations.

As to lamb and veal, he said, the price regulations effective this week should bring more even prices of these meats into market generally.

Under the regulations packers and wholesalers are required to supply retailers with cuts of lamb in proportions equal to those for same month a year ago. This, McBryan said, which has not before been written into a regulation, is designed to keep normal supplies of lamb and the same time to ban so-called "fat cuts" which retailers were to buy at above-normal prices.

Bucknell Celebrates Its Victory At Rally Today

POST SEASON BOWL GAMES IN QUESTION

BY BEN FRENCH
Lewisburg, Pa., Nov. 19.—(P)—Bucknell University students took time off from classes today to celebrate their first all-winning football team as school officials debated whether to accept post-season bowl offers.

All morning classes were dismissed for a giant pep rally to honor the power-laden thundering herd which concluded its season Saturday with a 33-6 triumph over the University of Delaware by setting a new eastern record for offense.

Al Humphreys, Bucknell's athletic director, admitted last night that the Bisons had been contacted by the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Tex., "and several others."

A report from El Paso said Bucknell had been tendered an official bid but Humphreys replied, "We don't consider it an official bid. We've also been approached by several others but I'm not permitted to give out their names. We won't be able to have a meeting of the Athletic Council until after the Thanksgiving vacation."

Dr. William H. Coleman, the University's dean, announced last night that the students would be free from classes this morning and get an extra half-day start on their Thanksgiving vacation tomorrow afternoon.

The students had plenty to cheer about at today's rally. In addition to winning nine games at a 40-point per game clip, the Bisons set a new eastern intercollegiate ground gaining record of 470 yards per game. It erased the old mark of 462.7 set by the 1945 army team during the days of Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis.

Bucknell's touchdown twins Brad Myers, of Lancaster, Pa., and Burt Talmage, of Mountain Lakes, N. J., each ran their rushing totals to over 1,000 yards for the season to virtually clinch first and second place in the east.

The last time Bucknell had an all-winning team was back in 1918. Carl Snively's 1931 club was unbeaten but had three ties.

The current edition—winner now of its last 13 games—claims victories over Gettysburg (41-7), Muhlenberg (54-19) Lehigh (47-7), Kent State (13-7), Buffalo (52-32), Lafayette (40-21), Temple (28-7) and Colgate (21-20) as well as Saturday's stampede of Delaware.

It marked the seventh unbeaten season for head coach Harry Lawrence, who previously led six straight Baltimore City college high elevens to a 54-game winning streak.

Ben Hogan Is Again 'Golf of the Year'

Chicago, Nov. 19.—(P)—Probably surprising exactly nobody, Ben Hogan, the little guy with the magic fairways touch, again has been named "golfer of the year."

The National Open Champion got 164 votes, about 85 per cent of those cast, in the professional Golfers' Association annual poll of sports writers and broadcasters.

It was the third time in the polls four-year history the award went to Hogan.

Collapse of Browns Would be Necessary To Change Standing

New York, Nov. 19.—(P)—The main interest in the National Football League today was in the national conference race because for all intents and purposes the American hunting is all tied up by the Cleveland Browns.

This will come as no surprise, of course, since the Browns have made a habit of winning titles since they've been in professional football.

For a while, it looked as though the New York Giants, a young and aggressive club, would give the Clevelanders a battle. But the issue was settled yesterday when Cleveland ground out a 10-0 victory over the Giants before a bumper crowd of 52,215—the largest turnout for a pro football game at the Polo Grounds since 1946.

The Browns now have a 7-1-0 record and the second place Giants 5-2-1. Each has four games to play, but at the rate the Browns have been going they'll have to collapse completely to lose out.

In other games, the Chicago Cardinals upset San Francisco, 27-21; Detroit defeated Philadelphia, 28-10, the Chicago Bears vanquished Green Bay, 24-13. Los Angeles routed the New York Yanks, 48-21, and Washington upended Pittsburgh, 22-7.

The Browns scored all their points—a field goal, a touchdown and a conversion—within the first eight minutes of the first period. Lou Groza kicked a 34-yard field goal to start it. Then, Otto Graham flipped a short pass to Dub Jones, who scampered 85 yards for the score. Groza converted and that was that.

The victories by the Bears and Rams left them in a tie for the National Conference lead, each 6-2-0. They're followed closely by Detroit with a 5-2-1. The Bears have the toughest proposition this week, facing the Browns. Los Angeles plays at Washington while the Lions entertain Green Bay Thanksgiving Day.

Washington Redskins Defeat the Steelers

Pittsburgh, Nov. 19.—(P)—Bill Dudley kicked three field goals against his former Pittsburgh Steeler mates to help the Washington Redskins to a 22-7 conquest in a National League game yesterday.

Dudley's trio of three-pointers overcame a 7-6 first half advantage the Steelers gained on Ray Matthews' brilliant 68-yard touchdown runback of a Dudley punt.

Effectively bottling up Joe Geri, Chuck Ortmann and Lynn Chandle, the Redskins hit the scoring trail in the second quarter with an 80-yard march spearheaded by fullback Rob Goode who plunged over from the two.

YMCA - City League Ends Its Practice Sessions Tonight

YMCA-City League cagers will close out their practice games tonight and tomorrow.

On slate for this evening are contests between the Style Shop and Youngsville at 7 o'clock, with the Warren Business School and Rockets tangling at 8 o'clock. Tuesday night's card features Texas Lunch and the Rockets in the first game and Youngsville and Atlantic in the second contest.

So far in the pre-season tilt the Texas Lunch has racked up two overwhelming victories over the Warren Business School and Atlantic. The Rockets posted a single win, WBS has split 1-1, while Youngsville, Atlantic and Style Shop have each lost one.

League officials and managers will meet at the "Y" on Wednesday evening to hand in rosters and entrance fees.

12 Major Schoolboy Elevens Undefeated

Harrisburg, Nov. 19.—(P)—Only 12 major schoolboy elevens remain in the perfect record class today across Pennsylvania with the traditional Thanksgiving Day finals remaining to be played.

Answering the unbeaten and untied roll call are Conemaugh township (10 victories), Erie Cathedral Prep (9), Johnstown Catholic (8), Kulpmont (10), Lewistown (9), Munhall (10), Pittsburgh Westinghouse (9), Ridley Township (10), Swoyersville (9), Uniontown (10), West Philadelphia Catholic (8) and West Scranton (7).

Missing for the first time in two years are Bellwood-Antis' Blue Devils who dropped their first decision in 28 games Friday night to unbeaten Class B Beaverdale, 14-7. That leave Erie Cathedral Prep's 17-game streak as the tops among the Class A schools.

Munhall, Ridley township, Swoyersville, West Philadelphia Catholic and West Scranton still have at least one game to play.

Munhall will meet Farrell, beaten only by Warren, Ohio, for the WPIAL Class AA title Friday in Ambbridge in the west's lone remaining game.

Bloomburg Huskies New League Champs

Harrisburg, Nov. 19.—(P)—Bloomburg's Huskies won the first football championship of the new 14-team Pennsylvania State Teachers College Conference with seven straight victories.

The unbeaten Huskies had clinched the title last week but downed Indiana, 20-0, Saturday just to make it more impressive. The final official standings released last night gave Bloomburg a 110-point margin over runner-up California.

In other weekend conference finales, Millersville downed Mansfield, 28-13, and Kutztown turned back Cheyney, 33-13.

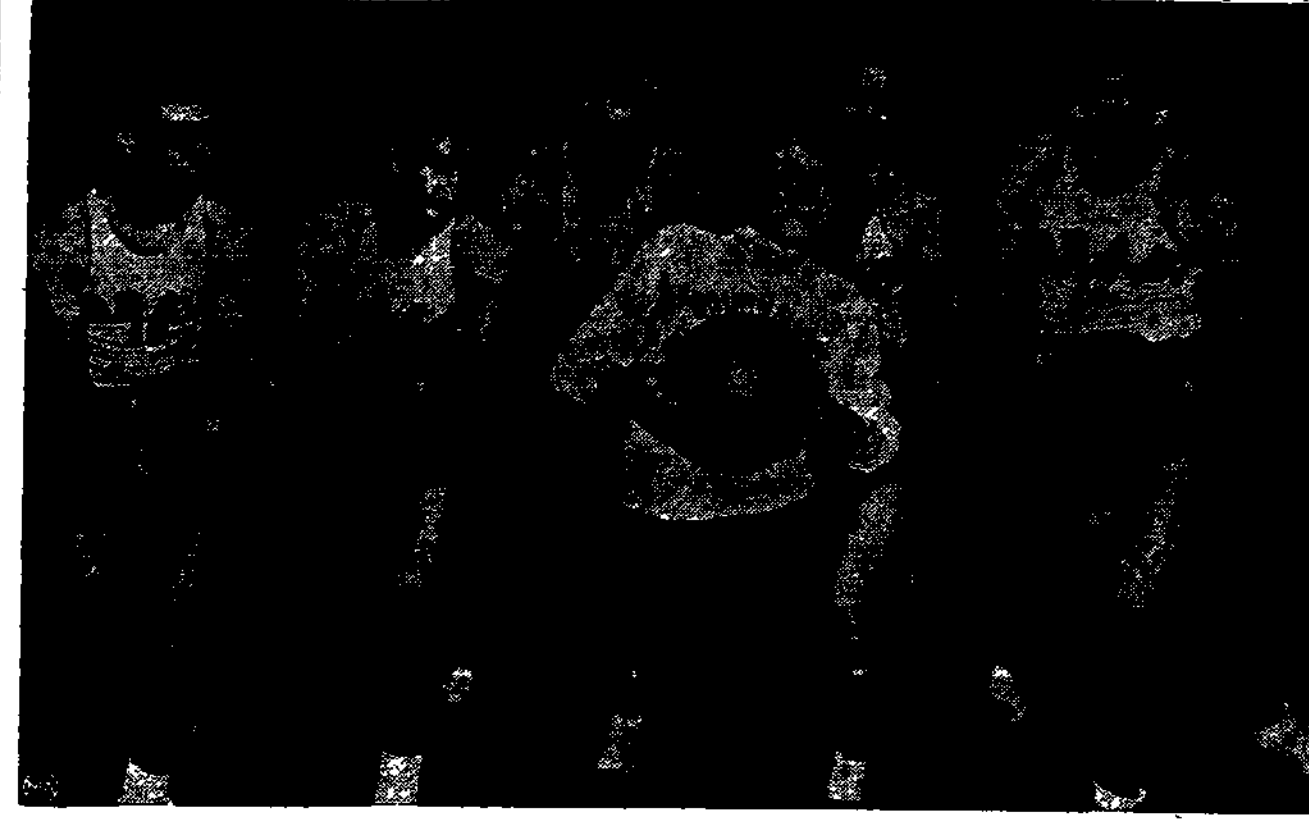

Big Turn-out For Club Turkey Shoot

Despite the snowy weather yesterday the Youngsville American Legion Gun Club had a fine turnout for their "turkey shoot" at Wilder Field, starting at 11 a. m. and continuing until five in the afternoon.

Four turkeys were awarded to the winners, who shot in groups of 15 with iron sight rifles on a 100-yard range. The lucky nimrods were Monte Alford, Bradford Henry Howard, Kane, and Jerry Schumacher, Pittsfield, the latter taking home two of the gobblers.

Warren High Football Squad Anticipates Talk By Joe Kurth As Guests of K. of C.

Through The Wind Tunnel

Jus' seems to us those Hobart basketball players, pictured on this page today, look a bit silly, but maybe as how we're 'way behind the times. A man's gotta keep his mind on his work.

En route back to Sampson Air Field Base after playing in Bowling Green, Ohio, Friday night, a basketball squad of ten Air Force boys had to spend Saturday night in Warren when wiring trouble developed in the de luxe sedan bus in which they were traveling. Just at dusk, the car's lights failed, fortunately at the west borough line. The boys said they enjoyed the night in Warren, especially the good food here, and several of them saw "Angels in the Outfield" at the Library. Repairs being made, they got under way about 10 a. m. Sunday.

Al Hulse, representing the Vitro Corporation of New York, and stationed at Struthers-Wells, is feeling better today after suffering from a regular northern Pennsylvania cold over the week-end.

The hunters are here! Their bright-colored plaid shirts and red caps were in evidence in many Warren restaurants yesterday, and for early breakfast today.

Abigail came home from Clearfield, where she has been visiting her niece, earlier than she intended, but she got to worrying about a hamper of late cucumbers which she had stored in the earthy part of the basement. They hadn't spoiled the least bit, so she stayed home from church yesterday, and put up a nice batch of cucumber crisps. Her nephew drove her home and along the road near Barnes she made him stop and back up so she could buy two pumpkins and a bushel of Hubbard squash. She's going to can the pumpkins today, although she says she's come to believe, at long last, that canned pumpkin is better and just as cheap. She had intended to go back to Clearfield for a while, but now she's got this bushel of squash to worry about and she may not get away again all winter!

Abigail says she'd bet a jar of cucumber pickle that she knows who made that apple pie for the Presbyterian supper, but she isn't going to commit herself, not one word, until she can catch up on the party line conversations. "It'll come out," she says, "it'll come out!"

Here's a good one from John J. Mead's column in the Erie Times: "Sports writer Jim Laughlin picked up an interesting oddity in his travels not so long ago. In the province of Quebec, there's a law prohibiting any person under the age of 16 to go to a theater. However, it is perfectly legal for a 16-year old boy and a 14-year old girl to marry. In such a case, explains Jim, she young husband may have to wait two years before he can take his wife to the movies!"

And, by that time, the added expense of a baby sitter must be considered!

When many of us remained close to the fireside Sunday, and avoided any necessity for going outside, ten members of the Electricians' Union continued their work of hanging the Christmas lights on Warren streets, their yearly contribution, and a cold job it was. Ben Kinnear and Nat Drake also braved the elements, and went along with the crew.

Our felicitations today to that longtime friend, A. Frank Kottcamp, who is celebrating his 80th birthday. Many people in Warren today do not realize that a number of things which they take for granted as a part of the city's regime have been made possible through the courage and perseverance of Frank Kottcamp. Proudly accompanied by his son, Charles, and his son-in-law, George Arnold, Frank attended Rotary today, having been a member for many years.

Penn State's 1951 football attendance, bolstered by a record 30,449 at the Michigan State game, showed an increase of 10,987 over 1950 attendance figures. For the traditional four home games, the 1951 total was 80,023.

It seems that lack of veteran material in the field of basketball this year is going to be the cause of many gray hairs for area coaches.

Last Saturday's Erie Times carried a picture in its second section showing two local boys with their instructor, Jean Gedeon, at Behrend Center. Both freshmen at the school, they were Bill Rohrer, Warren High Class of 1950, and Regis Gettner, class of '51. Miss Gedeon hails from down Titusville way, but Blue and White alumni of a few years ago will recall when she taught English here.

Commercially sponsored broadcasts of high school sports events have been banned by the Cleveland board of education on the advice of that city's law department. A spokesman for the board said that group has no legal authority to allow sponsored broadcasts and added, "A person does not send his son or daughter to school to have him become a chattel over television or radio." The announcement is expected to set the pattern for demands by other city boards who have faced or will face the problem.

Francis Olson, a new member of the Warren faculty this year, is playing with the Atlantic team in the YMCA-City League. It's a good way to prevent an early middle-aged spread. A certain "J. S." might try something, too.

George "Gee Gee" Wilson, Jamestown High halfback the Warren Dragons refused any yardage, broke loose for a 25 yard run in the closing minutes of play to give the Red Raiders a 13 to 6 victory over North Tonawanda Friday night. Coach J. B. Leidig's eleven is credited with the lone defeat in the Jintowners' 7-1 season record. . . . DuBois High was another district team with a perfect record all season until Punxsutawney overcame them, 28-21 in the team's final game. . . . Ridgeway Elkers slapped Johnsonburg, 19 to 7, in their curtain drawer and had a nice string of wins except for an unfortunate defeat from Kane in their opener.

BOWLS ARE WELL FILLED WITH WINNERS BUT STANFORD AND TENNESSEE FACE TOUGH ON

By RIF WATSON

New York, Nov. 19.—(P)—The 1951 college football season heads into its final big week with almost as many major teams already assured of bowl berths as are on the unbeaten and untied list.

And it's highly possible that by sundown Saturday the situation will be reversed, for two of the six remaining with perfect records face really rugged opposition and a third will have its work cut out for it. Also, Saturday's results may give the four assured bowl teams some company.

Oddly enough, the two teams most likely to drop from the unbeaten slate—Tennessee and Stanford—already are assured of action in the Jan. 1 bowl bonanzas. Tennessee, which must meet 1951's comeback champions, the Kentucky Wildcats, is lined up for the Sugar Bowl, and Stanford, which must go against powerful California, clinched a Rose Bowl bid Saturday by whipping Oregon State.

Princeton, the third unbeaten team with a tough game Saturday, does not figure in the bowl picture because of an Ivy League agreement. The Tigers, with Saturday's 27-0 trouncing of Yale their 21st straight win, face Dartmouth, which always points for the season's finale for both teams.

Otherwise, the teams with all-winning records should conclude their seasons that way. Maryland, sound for the Sugar Bowl against Tennessee, is heavily favored over West Virginia; Michigan State, No. 1 team in the land, should romp over Colorado, and San Francisco should have no trouble against Loyola of Los Angeles next Saturday. Michigan State also is out of the bowl picture because of big 10 rules, but San Francisco is available.

The other bowl-bound team is Georgia Tech, due to go to the Orange Bowl.

Two games which share the limelight with the Tennessee-Kentucky and Stanford-California struggles should give some idea as to the other bowlers.

Illinois could clinch the Big 10 title and subsequent Rose Bowl trip by beating—or tying—Northwestern, and the winner of the Rice-Texas Christian game will take at least a temporary lead in the race for Southwest Conference honors and the role of host in the Cotton Bowl.

But, whoever wins, the Southwest Conference won't be settled—as usual—until the final day of the season, Dec. 1. Rice, now with a 3-1 conference record, plays Baylor (2-1) that day and Texas Christian (also 3-1) winds up against Southern Methodist. Baylor plays SMU this week, while Texas (3-2) winds up against Texas A. & M. Nov. 29, Texas whipped TCU, 32-21, Saturday.

A somewhat similar cor would come up in the Big 10 Illinois should lose to Northwestern—and the Illini have lost straight to Northwestern. If conference record is 4-0-1 the disappointing scoreless tie Ohio State, and Wisconsin (has an easy foe Saturday innesota. Likewise, Purdue (3-1) be favored over Indiana. Wisconsin trounced Iowa Saturday, while Purdue was edging 3-0-1, 19-12. Northwestern of Michigan, 6-0.

Brokenstraw Club Will Offer Prize For Largest Kill

Members of the Brokenstraw Fish and Game Club announced today that they will offer a prize at the end of deer season for the hunter who kills the buck with the largest antler rack, and a prize to the hunter who kills the heaviest doe.

Ross Bailey and William G. turt have been named a committee to view the kills and tabulations.

Members of the club are to select as many deer skins as possible, to be sold for the benefit of the club.

At the club meeting Friday night, movies were shown and social time was enjoyed.
